The leading produce markets opened this morning with a decided tendency toward weakness, and as the session progressed the weakness developed into a panic, which carried prices down to the lowest point of the season. Corn declined 2½c, oats 1½c, pork $1.50 per barrel, lard 75c per 100 lbs, and ribs 50c per 100 lbs. The receipts of grain were very large, and the shipping demand was light. The receipts of hogs were also large, and the market was weak and lower. Cattle were in fair demand, and prices were steady.

Business on the Produce Exchange was very active, and
